THE LAY COMMUNITY OF SAINT BENEDICT

live holy communion . create holy space . offer holy service

Discipleship & Digital Coordinator

(Temporary contract for up to one year)

Would you like to be part of a team that has a really supportive and inclusive ethos and sense of community?

The LCSB, a community of Lay Benedictines, which celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2021 (www.lcsb.uk), wishes to recruit a skilled faith-filled person, a Christian, who will be part of the community on a short-term vocational placement. This person will attend community prayer on a regular basis and this placement will be part of his/her own spiritual development.

Hours: 30 hours per week, flexible hours, will include weekend working

Salary: £20,495 (£16,396 pro rata to hours worked, plus London allowance for those living in London postcodes)

The job duties will include building digital communications/resources, participating in events (Easter, the Summer Gathering) and regional meetings, and building a support network of prayer and relationship for young adults aged 18-35, and working with Teens team leaders to create a support/prayer network for teenagers.

The successful applicant must be an excellent communicator with experience of liaising with a variety of groups, experienced in working with young people and building a process of digital communication such as podcasts together with good influencing skills and the ability to demonstrate initiative. Musical ability in leading worship would be a real plus, and knowledge of the LCSB and its ethos together with experience of using social media is preferred but not essential as full training will be given.
